From Robert College...

Robert College, founded in Istanbul by Dr. Cyrus Hamlin and Mr. Christopher Rheinlander Robert in 1863, was the first American institution of higher learning outside the United States. It was established with the explicit understanding that its doors would be open to everyone without respect to race, religion, or creed and that it would never become politically involved.

The estate on which the College was built was bought from Ahmed Vefik Pasha. It harbored a quarry whose limestone was used by Mehmet the Conqueror to construct the Rumeli Fortress just before the conquest of Istanbul by the Ottomans in 1453. In the construction of all buildings on the campus built before 1914 this limestone, which became a symbol of Robert College, was used.

The newly established institution grew and developed fast and was to become an excellent center of learning in a very short period of time. Its Board of Trustees, situated in the United States, saw to it that only the best instructors taught to a selected group of top students admitted to Robert College. The campus, in its early years, hosted a library; the departments of business administration, engineering, sciences, and language and literature; an English language division; a museum of natural history; men and women's dormitories; and an infirmary.

In 1971, after over hundred years of superior service to the nation and to the academic community at large, its Board of Trustees turned over Robert College to the Turkish Government. Thus, Boğaziçi University, the official successor to Robert College, was inaugurated on the same campus in 1971.

...To Boğaziçi University

Prof. Aptullah Kuran, a graduate of Robert College, became the first Rector of Boğaziçi University upon its establishment in 1974. From that date on, the University entered a new phase of rapid structural and academic expansion and entered the 1990's with four Faculties (Arts and Sciences, Economics and Administrative Sciences, Education, Engineering), six graduate Institutes, School of Foreign Languages, School of Applied Disciplines and numerous research centers in a wide variety of fields.

The historic South Campus, where Robert College was originally established, still serves as the nucleus of the University. A historic site harboring the limestone quarry is now adorned by a lovely green "quad."

North Campus comprises the Main Library, the Science and Engineering Laboratories building, the Faculty of Education, men and women's dormitories and the Educational Technology building.

Kandilli Campus is the home of the historic Kandilli Observatory (founded in 1910) and the Institute of Earthquake Research. It was incorporated into Boğaziçi University in 1982.

Hisar Campus, which became a part of the University in 1989, is the home of the School of Applied Sciences and Institute of Environmental Sciences and an indoor olympic swimming pool.

The newly constructed Uçaksavar Campus includes a housing complex for the staff, a student dormitory (Superdorm), a cultural center, and a large athletic complex including a stadium and a fully equipped gymnasium.

Kilyos (Saritepe) Campus is situated on the shores of the Black Sea 20 km to the northwest of the South and North campuses.

You can send all your mail from here but you can not send or receive packages from the school branch. You need to go a central Post Office (closest located in Levent and Bebek). Incoming mail with Boğaziçi University address is delivered to academic departments.

NEWSPAPERS/MAGAZINES

In the quad you will notice a newsstand, which sells Turkish and foreign newspapers and magazines. (The Turkish Daily News, Herald Tribune, Financial Times, Time, Economist and the like).

STATIONERY

These items are for sale in a store in the basement of the 1st Men's Dormitory. You can also find a photocopy service there. Another possibility is the North Campus Bookstore.

NORTH CAMPUS BOOKSTORE

There is a major bookstore on the North Campus, catering to academic needs as well as carrying a wide range of popular publications and newspapers together with notebooks and accessories with the school logo.

BANKS

There are two banks in the south campus and several ATM's. The Garanti Bank branch is by the Engineering Building. It exchanges foreign traveler's checks or cash for Turkish Lira and vice versa. There are ATMs located just outside the bank as well as next to the Albert Long Hall in the quad. There is also a Finansbank branch right across the Registrar Office. That branch cannot change traveler's checks but are able to convert dollars and Euros to Liras. That also has an ATM. Moreover, there is an Akbank branch in the ground floor of the Kare Block at the north campus and in front of the entrance of the north campus there are ATMs too.

BARBER SHOP/COIFFEUR

In the basement of the 1st Men's Dormitory, there is a barbershop and a coiffeur located next to each other.

LAUNDRY

There are two laundries: one on the basement of the Cafeteria Building- North Campus and one on the basement of Superdorm.

LIBRARY

The library holds over 450,000 volumes in English, Turkish, French, German and other languages, which makes it one of the largest collections in the country. The Near East Collection is the richest collection of Near East materials in Western languages in Turkey. The Rare Book Division contains early printed books and manuscripts. The Library receives over 1600 current periodicals. Microfilms of the Times, New York Times, Cumhuriyet and Milliyet are also maintained.

Library Hours (summer term): Working day: 09:00 - 17:15

COMPUTER CENTER

The Computer Center is in South Campus. You can apply there for a temporary e-mail account with your student faculty ID. The account will be disabled upon your departure. Computer Center is open everyday between 09:00 - 17:00.

ACTIVITIES

The campus offers a myriad of extra-curricular activities and social events, almost all of which are prepared by student; concerts, plays, films, folk dancing, exhibition, sports competitions, as well as conferences make life at Boğaziçi University very colorful.

MITHAT ALAM FILM CENTER

Mithat Alam Film Center offers Boğaziçi University members access to an archive of approximately 2000 films on video that could be checked out or watched in the small TV room at the center. The center also includes an auditorium with a capacity of 61 seats. You can find the program on the web site of the center:

www.filmcenter.boun.edu.tr

SPORTS FACILITIES

The University provides a comprehensive sports program. Soccer, basketball, volleyball, tennis and rowing are extremely popular. Tournaments and exhibition games are held throughout the summer term. An outdoor long course pool open to all students is located at the South Campus (open everyday between 10:00 - 18:00). Table tennis, handball, wrestling, tracking and cross-country are also included in the sports program of the University. A sports complex including soccer and running track and a gymnasium with all the training equipment exists at the Uçaksavar Campus. At the Hisar Campus there is a short course swimming pool also.

COMMUNITIES AROUND THE CAMPUS

Rumeli Hisarüstü:

Located across from the Etiler or North Gate of the campus, this neighborhood is particularly popular. It has bread and simit bakeries (local bagel shop) closest to campus. On Saturday afternoons there is organic produce market from which vegetables and fruit of good quality may be purchased inexpensively. The Saturday market is also a source for some cooking utensils, laundry supplies, hardware goods, and the like. Rumeli Hisarüstü has restaurants, some grocery stores and markets, a pastry shop, pharmacies and Xerox shops. There are also bus and taxi stops.

Etiler:

The road from the Rumeli Hisarüstü traffic circle runs west, past the university library and eventually into a residential and shopping area that comprises part of Etiler. In general Etiler offers an array of services, including branch offices of many of Turkish and foreign banks, some excellent pastry shops, a number of grocery stores, film developing shops, newsstands and restaurants, some of which are pricey. Akmerkez, one of the biggest shopping centers of Istanbul is also in Etiler, where you can find all of these shops in one place.

Levent:

Of the three communities, Levent offers the widest array of shopping and dining alternatives, which compensates for the disadvantage of its distance from the campus. Levent has an outdoor market, numerous shops for purchasing various kinds of food and clothing, many restaurants and some bars.

Rumeli Hisar:

The commercial part of this district is on a steep hill, which has some grocery stores and the main road itself by the sea. Rumeli Hisar has some inexpensive restaurants and some places that are significantly more expensive, particularly if you choose fish instead of meat. Some of these places also have delightful second storey views of the Bosphorus as well as good sea-food.

Bebek:

At a 10 minutes walking distance lies Bebek. Bebek has a bookstore that carries a large array of foreign magazines and newspapers, a number of grocery stores, upscale restaurants that range in price from normal to very expensive, clothing stores, bars and sweet shops.

TRANSPORTATION

From the North to the South Campus

The walk between the two campuses is pleasant, with a wonderful view. There is also a shuttle service between the South, North, Hisar and Uçaksavar campuses which runs frequently.

Downtown

You can use bus, boat and taxi to go to downtown. You can use two roads to go to town

Upper road: From Rumeli Hisarüstü virtually all buses go to Taksim, Beşiktaş, Şişli, Kabataş, Kadıköy (in Asian side of the Bosphorus) and Sarıyer. All of them go through Etiler and Levent.

Lower, Coastal Road: This is the line for either Taksim or Kabataş via Bebek and Beşiktaş. In order to go to the north of the city, (Sarıyer), lower road can be used.

Buses

Your most frequent bus ride routes would likely to be Hisarüstü to Taksim (559C), Hisarüstü to Kabataş (43R), Hisarüstü to Şişli (59R), Hisarüstü to Sarıyer (59RS), Hisarüstü to Kadıköy (125), Bebek to Taksim (40 and 40T) and Bebek to Kabataş (22, 22RE and 25E). You should use AKBİL's or "smart tickets" that can be purchased at ticket boots. These are used almost like a phone card having prepaid credits. AKBİL's are available at Hisarüstü, Taksim, Beşiktaş, Şişli or Mecidiyeköy.

If you have any doubts about the destination of any bus, you can check the signs which are normally posted at the front and on the sides. They show all the major stops along the route that the bus is following.

You can visit to get more information about public transportation

www.iETT.gov.tr/en/index.php

Taxi:

Transportation using cabs are cheap in Istanbul. Always check the cab meter and pay in Turkish Liras. Trying to pay in foreign currency will be a problem for you since it will not be easy to communicate nor do the calculation for conversion and you may end up paying too much.

Boats:

The boat dock is at Bebek. This is a very pleasant way to travel, less crowded during rush hours and also a rapid way to get downtown on a weekday morning.

Weekdays there are two early morning boats which go to Eminönü. Along the way they stop at Ortaköy and Beşiktaş. The schedule is posted at the dock, inside the waiting room.

Tipping, etc.

It is customary to tip 10-15 % in restaurants. Tipping is not required for taxis. Credit cards (Visa / MasterCard) are accepted almost everywhere.

SOME USEFUL INFORMATION AND TELEPHONE NUMBERS

The inter-city code for Istanbul is 212 for the European side and 216 for the Asian side. To call a number on the other side, first dial (0), then appropriate code. (Do not dial the area code if you are calling a number from the same area). To call overseas, first dial (00), then the country code followed by the area code than the number.
